

The majority of the information marked as confidential in this PMN does not require substantiation according to TSCA 14(c)(2). Including the following:

Manufacturing Process Description as well as the identity of the location of manufacturer.

Customer information

Specific production volumes

Specific volumes targeted for specific uses

We are providing this substantiation to support the CBI protection for the identity of the agent and technical contact. This information should not be disclosed as it is proprietary information between the submitter and the agent.